LET'S KEEP EACH OTHER SAFE

Wear a face cover

Watch your distance

Wash/sanitize your hands often

WHAT WE ARE DOING TO KEEP YOU SAFE

- Treating buses each night with disinfectant
- Monitoring passenger loads to prevent crowding, temporarily switching buses to 'drop off only' if necessary
- Requiring drivers to do a health screening at the start of every shift
- Providing drivers with personal protective equipment
- Providing customers with face masks (while supplies last)
- Prominently displaying social distancing messaging
- Installed protective shields to protect drivers and customers

EVERETT TRANSIT BUS SCHEDULE SUPPLEMENT

OCTOBER 2020

KEEP YOUR SCHEDULE BOOK UNTIL MARCH

This is a brief guide to supplement our printed schedule book dated March 15, 2020. The book will be good until March 2021.

SERVICE

Weekday: we are operating on an enhanced Saturday schedule. This means we are running the Saturday schedule Monday through Friday, with the additional trips found in this supplement. So when you are planning your journey, look at the Saturday schedule in the bus schedule book, plus all the trips listed here.

Route 6 has been suspended so we can provide essential service on our busiest routes and prevent crowding on buses.

Saturday: there is no route 6. The rest of the schedule book is accurate.

Sunday: no service

SCHEDULE INFORMATION: timetables at the bus stops are accurate, as well as the information on our website, EverettTransit.org.
